

Contents

Table of Cases	xi
List of Abbreviations	xix
Introduction: A Legal Imagination	1
A. Escaping the 'straightjacket of government control'	9
B. Grasping the legal imagination: a transnational law method	11
C. Overview	15
1. Foreign Investor Rights and Investment Relations	17
A. Foreign investments as a combination of rights	17
B. The purpose of foreign investor rights and investment treaties	20
C. Foreign investor rights and social relations	23
D. Foreign investor rights and states' right to regulate	27
E. Distribution, recognition, and the embeddedness of foreign investor rights	35
F. Protecting foreign investor rights through ISDS	40
Conclusion	50
2. The Norm Entrepreneurs of the 1950s and 1960s	51
A. The norm entrepreneurs for international investment protection	51
B. A world of law and prosperity	60
C. Restoring the past through other means	63
D. Making international foreign investor rights	67
Conclusion	80
3. Competing Imaginaries and the 1970s	81
A. A business approach to balance: the International Chamber of Commerce and the OECD	81
B. Embedded liberalism and foreign investment: the United Nations and the Group of Eminent Persons	85
C. The United States' approach to balance: discussions before the US Senate	90
D. The Global South and economic sovereignty: the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States	92
Conclusion	94
4. The Rise of Investment Treaties and ISDS in the 1990s and Since	96
A. The Washington Consensus and the role of UNCTAD and the World Bank	96
B. Antecedents in investment (non-ISDS) arbitration	105

x CONTENTS

C. ISDS and the progressive development of international investment law	108
Conclusion	121
5. ISDS in Action	122
A. Santa Elena v. Costa Rica : the politics of investment disputes	122
B. The Metalclad and Tecmed disputes: the costs and risks of economic development	125
C. The SD Myers , Methanex , Glamis , and Chemtura disputes: environmental regulation, business, and activism	130
D. Oxy v. Ecuador 2 : states' right to protect their rights	138
E. Philip Morris v. Uruguay and Eli Lilly v. Canada : intellectual property rights and public health	143
Conclusion	148
6. Givings and ISDS	150
A. Argentina—privatization and economic crisis	150
B. Spain—green business and economic crisis	163
Conclusion	170
7. Local Communities and ISDS	172
A. Foreign investment relations and local communities	172
B. ISDS practice and local communities	179
Conclusion: Towards a New Legal Imagination	199
Documents from International Organizations, Professional Associations, and Research Institutions
Bibliography	207
Index	211
	233