

Table of Contents

Foreword	v
----------	---

Manuel Alonso Olea

BETWEEN DON QUIXOTE AND SANCHO PANZA: A CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP?	1
---	---

Janice R. Bellace

LABOR LAW FOR THE POST-INDUSTRIAL WORKPLACE: BREAKING THE NEW DEAL MODEL IN THE USA	11
1. Introduction	11
2. Design Flaws in the Statutory Framework	12
2.1. Weakening of the Statutory Framework	17
3. The Obsolescent Statutory Model	18
3.1. The Social Hierarchy of the 1930s Labor Force	19
3.2. Changing Nature of the Labor Force	20
3.3. The Changing Social Hierarchy at Work	21
3.4. The Globalization of Markets	22
4. Future Directions	23
4.1. New Institutions	24
5. Conclusion	26

Prof. Ruth Ben-Israel

FROM COLLECTIVE JUSTICE TO INDIVIDUAL JUSTICE: CHANGING EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIPS IN ISRAEL	27
1. Introduction	27
A. Individual and Collective Justice	29
B. The 1994 Labour Relations Structure	30
C. The 1995 Labour Relations Data	32
D. The Turning Points	33
i. The Constitutional Revolution	33
ii. The Health Insurance Law	33
2. The Constitutional Revolution	34
A. The Pre-Constitutional Period	34
B. The Legislative History	35
C. Social Basic Rights	36
D. Labour-Related Explicit Constitutional Rights	37
E. Principles for Interpretation	38

TABLE OF CONTENTS

F. Restriction of Basic Rights	39
G. The Override Exception	42
H. Validity of Existing Labour Legislation	42
3. Legal Implications of the Constitutional Revolution	43
A. Organizational Security Arrangements	43
i. Closed Shop and Union Shop	44
ii. Agency Shop	45
iii. The Principle of Exclusive Representation	46
B. The Restraint of Trade Dimension	47
4. The Health Insurance Law (HIL)	51
5. Conclusion	54

Prof. Roger Blanpain

A SOCIAL SECURITY TAX (SST): FINANCING SOCIAL SECURITY FOR PRIVATE-SECTOR EMPLOYEES BY INCREASING VAT
A proposal for Belgium and for the European Union as part of Social Convergence in Europe (1996)	57
Introductory Remarks	57
A. Starting Points	58
B. Objective of Social Policy	59
C. Replacement of the Employer's Social Security Contribution (50%) by a Social Security Tax (SST): A Levy on Value Added Tax	60
D. At European Level: Social Convergence	61
E. Consequences	61
1. Improvement of the Employment Situation	62
2. Financing of Social Security	62
3. Functioning of the European market	62
4. Discouragement of Undeclared Work in the Black Economy	62
5. Simplification of Social Security	62
6. Preservation of Purchasing Power and the RPI	63
Conclusions	63

Juan Carlos Fernandez Madrid

THE PRINCIPLES OF LABOUR LAW IN ARGENTINA: THE PRINCIPLE OF INDEMNITY	65
I. The Principles and Positive Law	66
II. Article 14 bis of the National Constitution and the Laws that Regulate It	67
III. The Weakening of Protection	67
IV. The Objective of Labour Laws	68
V. The Laws of Market and Collective Disponibility	68

TABLE OF CONTENTS

VI. Unemployment and New Technologies	69
VII. Technological Change and Employment	69
VIII. The Law in Times of Crisis and the Principle of Labour Law: The Non-renouncement of Rights	70
IX. Development of the Protective Principle	71
X. Tendencies and Legislative Projects	71
XI. Returning to the National Constitution and to the ILO Conventions	72
XII. Conclusion	72

Franz Gamillscheg

TRADE UNION REPRESENTATIVITY IN GERMAN LAW	75
I. The Problem	75
II. Cases and Decisions	78
III. Elements of the Capability of Taking Effective Action	80
IV. Criticisms and Suggestions	83

Chi-Sun Kim

CHANGES IN THE NATURE OF EMPLOYMENT IN THE KOREAN LABOR MARKET AND RESULTING LEGAL ISSUES	89
I. Legal Issues Raised by the Diversification of Employment Forms	89
1. The Emergence of New Employment Forms and Ensuing Problems	89
2. The Meaning of Irregular Worker Employment	90
II. Temporary Employment	91
1. Protection of Temporary Workers by Individual Labor Laws	92
2. Protection of Temporary Workers by Collective Labor Relations Laws	95
III. Part-time Employment	95
1. Applicability of Labor Laws to Part-time Workers	96
2. Protection of Part-time Workers by Individual Labor Laws	97
3. Protection of Part-time Workers by Collective Labor Laws	100
IV. Worker Dispatching	100
1. Pros and Cons on Enactment of the Worker Dispatching Bill	101
2. Worker Dispatching and Arguments on the Spread of Employer Responsibility	103
3. Major Arguments on the Conditions of Employment Prescribed in the Worker Dispatching Bill	104
V. Conclusion	105
Bibliography	106

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Berndt von Maydell

THE CONCEPT OF POLITICAL STRIKES IN GERMANY AND IN INTERNATIONAL LABOUR LAW	107
I. The Subject	107
II. Political Strikes under the German Legal Order	108
1. Definition	108
2. The Different Levels of Examining Admissibility	109
3. The Unconstitutionality of the Political Coercion Strike	109
4. The So-called Political Demonstration Strike	111
5. Summary	114
III. The Prohibition of Political Strikes in Germany in the Light of International Labour Law	115
1. Regarding International Labour Law	115
2. Convention No. 87 and the Right to Strike	115
3. Evaluation of Political Strikes by the ILO Supervisory Bodies	117
4. Is the Prohibition of Political Strikes in Germany Compatible with Convention No. 87?	118
5. Final Conclusions	119

Prof. László Nagy

SETTLEMENT OF COLLECTIVE LABOUR DISPUTES IN THE CENTRAL AND EAST EUROPEAN COUNTRIES	121
I. Background	121
II. Definitions	122
III. Settlement of Disputes	123
IV. Collective Disputes of a Legal Character	124
V. Conclusion	126

Américo Plá Rodríguez

EL DERECHO LABORAL ANTE UNA ENCRUCIJADA	127
I. Planteo	127
II. Abandono de los Principios	128
III. Mantenimiento de los Principios	136

Max G. Rood

INTERNATIONALIZATION: A NEW INCENTIVE FOR LABOUR LAW AND SOCIAL SECURITY	139
1. Introduction	139
2. Symptoms of Crisis in our Field	140
2.1. Modern Economics as a Counterforce to Social Law	140
2.2. The Threat of Individualism	141
2.3. The New Typical Worker	143

2.4. The Position of the Third Actor – the Government	144
3. Effects of the Developments Mentioned	145
4. Thoughts about Future Labour Law	148
5. The Actors in a New Labour Law System	151
5.1. The European Community	151
5.2. The ILO	153

Johannes Schregle

EXPLAINING LABOUR LAW AND LABOUR RELATIONS TO FOREIGNERS: SOME REFLECTIONS ABOUT INTERNATIONAL COMPARISON	155
1. Growing Importance of International Comparison	155
2. Insufficient Knowledge of Other Countries	156
3. Main Difficulties in Explaining Labour Law and Labour Relations to Foreigners	157
4. A Few Practical Suggestions	159
5. Adopting a Functional and Historical Approach	161
6. Concentrating on Main Characteristics	163
7. Conclusions	164

Jean-Michel Servais

LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES: PUBLIC OR PRIVATE MANAGEMENT?	165
I. Public or Private Employment Agencies	166
II. The Supervision of Employment Conditions	170
III. Labour Disputes	174
IV. Social Security	176
V. International Labour Relations	178
VI. Future Prospects	179

Michał Seweryński

THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE IN INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS DURING THE PERIOD OF TRANSFORMATION IN POLAND	183
Introduction	183
I. The Role of the Legislative Branch	184
1. General Considerations	184
2. The Right of Trade Unions and Employers' Organizations to Associate and to Carry Out Their Activities	185
3. Collective Bargaining Agreements	187
4. Collective Labour Disputes	188
5. Workers' Representation in an Enterprise	190
II. The Role of the Judicial Authorities	192
1. Introductory Comments	192

TABLE OF CONTENTS

2.	The Rights of Trade Unions and Employer Organizations to Associate and Carry Out Activities	193
3.	The Implementation of Collective Bargaining Agreements	194
4.	Resolution of Collective Labour Disputes	194
5.	The Activity of Workers' Representatives in an Enterprise	195
III.	The Role of Administrative Agencies	196
1.	General Comments	196
2.	The Role of Governmental Administrative Organs in Industrial Relations in Poland	196
3.	Concluding Observations	197

Tore Sigeman

	INSIDERS AND OUTSIDERS IN THE LABOUR MARKET: EXPERIENCES OF A NORDIC WELFARE STATE IN LABOUR LAW PERSPECTIVE	201
1.	Introduction	201
2.	The Institutional Setting	202
3.	The Balance of Power	206
4.	The Inflationary Tendencies of Centralized Wage Bargaining	207
5.	Wage Differentials	210
6.	Unemployment and Non-regular (or Atypical) Employment	212
7.	Some Concluding Remarks	215

Jean-Maurice Verdier

	ASPECTS DE L'ÉVOLUTION DU DROIT DU TRAVAIL EN FRANCE DANS LE CADRE DES MUTATIONS TECHNOLOGIQUES ET ÉCONOMIQUES	217
I.	Le paradoxe de la 'flexibilisation': un surcroît de réglementation et sa complexification	219
II.	Un retour aux conventions: garantie et risque pour la salarié	225
A.	Le conventionnel collectif	226
B.	Le contrat individuel de travail	227

Pierre Verge

	CANADIAN LABOUR LAW: MIRROR OF THE NEW REALITIES OF WORK?	235
I.	Labour Law: A Distinct Legal Reality?	236
II.	Transformation of the Traditional Employment Relationship	239
III.	The Adaptation of Current Labour Law to the Evolution of Salaried Work	241
IV.	Future Perspectives	246