

Section 3

30/50

Pass

NAME _____

NO ESCRIBA SU NOMBRE

- 1) a - descended upon: Fell
- b - charged into: Face a situation with conviction to over-come it/make it.
- c - to consecrate: to dedicate
- d - effaced: excel oneself
- e - conception: creation

3/5

2) The narrator describes Anthony Patch as a gifted man, descendant of a well-known family. He is aware of his attributes and good qualities, and is described to be in a healthy state.

3/5

3) From what is said in the text, we can say that the oldest members of the family that is talked about (Adam J. Patch) was a man that knew what he wanted and faced important situations throughout his life that got him to the place he manages to be. Meanwhile, his son (Adam Ulysses Patch) had a less difficult path, since he, with the help of his father's name, managed to publish a book to his name. Finally, the grandson (Anthony Comstock Patch, then only known just as Anthony Patch) will use to his advantage his surname to make himself big.

4/10

4) The first generation of the Patch Family (Adam J.'s father, Anthony) is described to live in a farm, far from the city, but his son decided to change the course of his life and went to war, and after that to the big city to be big. His son, Adam Ulysses, didn't have a hard life, since his father supported him and he achieved his goals. And the same goes to Anthony Comstock, since he had his family to rely on.

6/10

5) The text talks about the different generations of the Patch's Family.

6) According to what is said in the text, I can imagine that Anthony Patch managed to follow his dreams, but not without failing first. He had to hit rock bottom before he could get to the top.

8/10